What do you like most about the neighborhood?
The diversity of the neighborhood is amazing. From the architecture stock to the people who live and work here and in the range of things that happen in Callowhill, from light manufacturing to arts and culture to 21st century technology businesses. And of course the Rail Park !

What do you think needs improvement in the neighborhood?
We need cleaner and better lit streets.
Clear guidelines for developers regarding new developements

Tell us a little about yourself—how long have you lived in the neighborhood and what would make you a good board member:
I have lived in Callowhill since 1979. I am deeply committed to making the neighborhood a better place to live, work and visit
